CIRCULAR

It has been observed that several Government and corporate bodies have shown interest in providing financial assistance to the University under Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives. CSR funding serves as a vital additional support mechanism for enhancing the infrastructural and medical facilities of the Institute.

With a view to ensuring the proper execution of CSR-related processes and formalities at the University level, a KGMU Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Cell comprising the following members is hereby constituted with immediate effect:

1-	Prof. Kumar Shantanu Medical Superintendent, Center for Orthopaedic Superspeciality, KGMU	Chairperson
2-	Dr. Akshay Anand Additional Professor, Department of Surgery(General)	Member
3-	Dr. Madhu Sudhan Assistant Professor, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery	Member

The CSR cell shall be responsible for the followings:-

1. To formulate well-defined SOPs for the proposed CSR funding process in the University.
2. To evaluate all proposals received for CSR funding from various organisations in accordance with the requirements of the University and submit a report, along with clear recommendations and justification, to the undersigned.
3. To explore and pursue opportunities for obtaining appropriate CSR funding from the Central/State Government and reputed Public Sector Undertakings and corporate bodies.
4. Maintenance of CSR records(source of funds, items and amount)
