Industry-Academia Collaboration: Bus on Wheels Initiative by Johnson & Johnson Ethicon

As part of an ongoing industry-academia collaboration, this is to certify that Johnson & Johnson Ethicon organizes the “Bus on Wheels” initiative at the Department of Surgery, King George’s Medical University (KGMU), Lucknow.

This unique program involves conducting suturing skill workshops within a specially equipped mobile skills lab. The initiative aims to enhance surgical proficiency among undergraduate and postgraduate medical students, offering hands-on training in basic and advanced suturing techniques under expert guidance.

The collaboration reflects a shared commitment towards fostering surgical education, promoting skill development, and bridging the gap between academic learning and clinical practice.
