

Advertisement

Cancer Palliative Care Unit, Department of Radiotherapy seeking to recruit dedicated and compassionate doctor to join cancer palliative care team. Walk-in Interview will be conducted on 18th July 2026 for the following purely temporary post for Cancer Palliative Care Project funded by Cipla Foundation in the Department of Radiotherapy under Prof. Rajendra Kumar.

S. No	Name of Post	No. of Post	Remuneration	Qualification and Work Experience
1	Palliative Care Doctor	1	135000/month	MD/Post Graduation in Palliative Medicine/Radiation Oncology/Anaesthesia (Pain & Palliative Care) or MD Medicine with Certificate Course in Palliative Care and 1 year working experience in patient care. OR MBBS with Certificate Course in Palliative Care.

1. Last date of submission of CV with requisite qualification and experience is 15th July 2026 till 4:00 PM in Cancer Palliative Care Unit, Department of Radiotherapy, Shatabdi Phase-2, KGMU, Lucknow (UP).
2. Appointment will be made initially up to 31st March 2027 and can be extended till the end of the project.
3. Appointment of selected candidate can be terminated at any time for unsatisfactory performance.
4. The selected candidate shall have no right/claim to have regular appointment at this institute. The engagement is co-terminus with the project. No TA/DA will be admissible for attending the interview.
5. Candidates who submitted the CV and documents should attend the walk-in interview on 18th July 2026 in the office of the Department of Radiotherapy between 10:30 AM to 1:00 PM.

Dr. Rajendra Kumar
M.D., N.F.P.M.,
Professor and Chief Coordinator, Cancer Palliative Care Project
Department of Radiation Oncology
K.G. Medical University Lucknow
KGMU, Lucknow