Dear Patron,

As discussed, Elsevier is bound by a confidentiality policy and, therefore, cannot share benchmarking data of other customers. However, I am sharing the price justification letter for your reference and necessary action.

Regarding the renewal subscription price for KGMU Medical University, we are currently unable to offer any further reduction as the price is aligned with our existing pricing and rebate policies.

We appreciate your understanding and remain committed to providing the best value and support for your subscription.

Best Regards,

Sub: Justification for Subscription Pricing of Elsevier ClinicalKey Physician 2025-2026

Respected Patron,

In reference to the discussions regarding the price of ClinicalKey Physician subscription for your library for the year 2025-2026 we wish to inform the following:

- The pricing of ClinicalKey Physician is calculated dynamically for all customers worldwide based upon the category of the institute, its FTE, usage etc. This is the prevalent practice amongst the industry to make content affordable to all sections of researchers and academia.
- Accordingly, we confirm that we have correctly charged the prices for the subscriptions as mentioned below:

Elsevier ClinicalKey Physician - All specialities - $1,42,681

We confirm that we have not charged any similar institution a lower price than your institution for similar subscription of resources.

Sincerely,

Subject: (Clarification wrt One Nation One Subscription (ONOS))

Respected Patron,

Greetings from Elsevier!!!

Although the Govt. of India has introduced the "One Nation One Subscription (ONOS)" scheme, we wish to clarify that ClinicalKey, Elsevier's premier clinical search engine and reference tool, is not included as part of ONOS. ClinicalKey is a comprehensive, proprietary product offering access to a wide range of peer-reviewed journals, medical books, clinical tools, patient education, clinical trials and multimedia resources to enhance patient care and decision-making process.

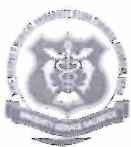

While the ONOS initiative facilitates access to select scientific and scholarly resources at a national level, ClinicalKey remains an independent product available through direct subscriptions to institutions and organizations. We continue to collaborate closely with leading institutions in India to provide tailored access to ClinicalKey, ensuring their needs are met with the highest quality medical and scientific content.

We appreciate your interest in Elsevier products and look forward to serving your institution's needs.

Sincerely,
For Elsevier
